

As a member of a geographical-biological expedition to Lapland, he was elected a Fellow of the Royal Society of Edinburgh. He was also a member of Edinburgh Zoological Society and a trustee of the Aberlady Bay Nature Preserve.

A confirmed bachelor, he maintained his interest in his work and his former pupils to the end, and although some of his fellow members of staff may have found his unorthodox views somewhat exasperating, his unflinching cheerfulness and loyalty made him a splendid colleague.
